NYA provides consultants to work at all levels of an organisation, from senior crisis management advisors to remote and hostile environment site security managers.

About NYA

NYA International is a global risk and crisis management consultancy.

For over 25 years we have helped organisations to maximise opportunities and operate successfully in challenging environments around the world.

NYA offers direct or remote support to organisations that have identified security or capability gaps, or that need personnel for temporary assignments where they lack in-house resources or the relevant experience.

We provide consultants to work at all levels of an organisation, from senior crisis management advisors to remote and hostile environment site security managers.

Responsibilities may cover all aspects of security and risk management, including some or all of the following:

- Advice on formation and implementation of security risk management strategy
- Site, country and/or regional risk management security review
- Development of a security management programme, including maintenance and implementation of policies, plans and procedures
- Development and implementation of crisis management plans including procedures for the management of kidnap for ransom, detention and emergency political evacuation incidents
- Training of site, country and regional personnel on issues relating to safety and security - from personal security awareness at an individual level to preparation of local crisis management teams
